- General issues: Resolved in accordance with the OCA Constitution and Rules.
- Technical issues: Resolved in accordance with the regulations of the Technical Committee.

7. Competition Format

7.1. Competition System

- Men's teams will be divided into four groups: Group A, Group B, Group C, Group D, and each group consists of four teams. All teams will be grouped based on the rankings of the current Asia Rugby Sevens Series Rankings and the current Asia Rugby Sevens Trophy Rankings.

- Women's teams are divided into three groups: Group A, Group B and C. All teams will be grouped based on the latest Asia Rugby Sevens Series Rankings. The World Rugby and/or Asia Rugby Ranking system will be utilized for the teams in the groups.

- The competition will have two phases: Preliminary Matches and Knock-Out Matches.
• The Preliminary Matches will be conducted on a round robin basis.

• In the men’s competition, after the preliminary matches the teams will be ranked from 1 to 16. The top 8 ranked teams will play in a knockout competition which will start from the quarterfinal phase and until the medal matches as well as ranking matches for teams to be placed from 1 to 8.

• The bottom 8 ranked teams will play in a similar knockout format which will end with teams being ranked from 9 to 16.

• The women’s knock-out matches will be conducted according to the ranking of teams in each group. The top 8 ranked teams will play in knockout quarter-finals, followed by semi-finals and then the Playoff matches. The bottom 4 ranked teams will play in a knockout competition which will then ranked teams from 9 – 12.

• Teams will be grouped by a draw.

7.2. Awarding of Points and the Tie-break System for Pool Matches

• During the Preliminary Matches, three (3) points shall be awarded for a win, two (2) points for a draw and one (1) point for a loss. Position in the pool competition table shall be determined by competition points as set out above. If after the pool stage two Teams are equal on competition points for any position in the pool, such position in the pool competition table will be determined on the result of the Match between the two equal Teams. The Team that won that Match shall be deemed to have finished higher in the pool competition table. If the Match between the two Teams equal on competition points at the end of the pool stage was a draw, then the following process shall be used to determine the placing.

1. (Points Difference) The margin of points scored for and against a team in all group matches shall be considered. The team with the highest positive margin of points shall be ranked higher in the group competition table. If the tie remains unresolved then:

2. (Tries Difference) The margin of tries scored for and against a team in all Preliminary Matches shall be considered. The team with the highest positive margin of tries shall be ranked higher in the group competition table. If the tie again remains unresolved then:

3. (Highest Points) The teams concerned shall be ranked by reference to the number of points scored in all Preliminary Matches. The team with the highest number of points scored in the Preliminary Matches shall be ranked higher in the group competition table. If the tie remains unresolved then:

4. (Highest Tries) The teams concerned shall be ranked by reference to the number of tries scored in all Preliminary Matches. The team that has scored the highest number of tries in the Preliminary Matches shall be ranked higher in the group competition table if the tie remains unresolved then:

5. (Coin Toss) Tie will be resolved by the toss of a coin between the Team Managers concerned.

7.3. Knock-Out Phase

- If at the end of play, in the Knock-Out phase, the scores are tied then the following will take place: Extra time will be played until a winner is determined.

- Extra time will be in period(s) of five minutes. After each period, the teams will change ends without an interval. In extra time, the "sudden-death" formula will be applied (i.e. the team that scored first will be the winner immediately and the game will end at that point).
