Host Cities in Brief

ASTANA
1832 — Date of foundation. Before 1961 — City of Akmolinsk
1961–1992 — City of Tselinograd
1993–1998 — City of Akmola
By the edict of the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan the city of Akmola is declared Capital of the Republic of Kazakhstan on October 20th, 1997 and by the decree of the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan Akmola is renamed into the Astana on May 6th, 1998.
Geographical position: 51° 10’ 00” of North latitude and 71° 25’ 00” of East longitude.
Local time: Astana is in Time Zone 5. Local time in relation to the Prime Meridian is GMT +06.00
The climate of Astana is the second coldest capital in the world (after Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia), with temperatures of -35 to -40 °C common in early winter. The city is also known for regular frosts for around six months every year.
Nowadays Astana is getting the image of a business center of the country. All government organizations, embassies of foreign countries, joint enterprises and foreign firms are concentrated in the new capital. Each year the city meets guests on various international industrial exhibitions, conferences and music festivals.

ALMATY
1854 — Date of foundation
1854–1921 — City of Vernyi
1921–1997 — Alma-Ata (capital of Kazakhstan)
Almaty is a former capital of the Republic of Kazakhstan and invariably remains the largest megalopolis in the country. Since independence in 1991, the city has experienced a significant transformation from its sudden exposure to western markets.
It is located in the south-east of the country.
Geographical position: 43°15’ 00” of North latitude and 76° 54’ 00” East longitude.
Local time: Almaty is in Time Zone 5. Local time in relation to the Prime Meridian is GMT +06.00
Population: 1,405,456 people.
The climate of Almaty is quite mild. It is never as cold here as in the northern parts of the country and one can easily survive without a fur hat and a fur coat. However, because of higher humidity it may seem a little colder in winter than it is in fact.
Almaty remains the largest financial, economic and cultural center of Central Asia. It accommodates numerous business centers, theaters, museums, art galleries, exhibition halls and countless modern entertainment complexes (movie theaters, nightclubs, parks, restaurants, cafes etc.)
The 7th Asian Winter Games in Brief

Dates: January 30 — February 6, 2011

Place: Astana-Almaty, Kazakhstan

Sport Programme: 5 Sports, 11 Disciplines, 69 Events

Venues: 9 Competition Venues

Objectives: According to the Olympic and Asian Games spirit, the aim of these Games is to support solidarity, friendship and interchange between Asian countries and regions and to enhance creation of a harmonious Asia.

Motto: Unity of purpose — unity of spirit!
Мақсаты Бірдің — рухы Бір!

Logo: The design of the logo goes back to the image of a nomadic bullock cart. In heraldic art, the wheel serves as a symbol of eternal movement, both in space and in time. Reflecting the idea of constant development, the logo becomes an emblem of life and represents creative dynamism. The symbolism of the wheel is close to that of the circle and according to ancient beliefs it expresses the idea of the god of the Sun going around the Earth. Thus, the logo is a solar sign and represents the radiant power of a star that grants life and prosperity.

Asian Games Official Closing Ceremony: February 6, 2011, Baluan Sholak Sport Palace, Almaty
Games Services

Accreditation
All application forms for identification (ID) and accreditation cards (AD) will be available for on-line completion at the official web-site of the Games, www.astana-almaty2011.com, beginning June 1st, 2010. The deadline for completing or making changes to the application forms is October 30th, 2010. Following the completion, the identification cards must be signed and stamped with the NOC of the respective country, which will ensure the right to enter and exit Kazakhstan with a valid passport from January 1st, 2011 to February 21st, 2011. The accreditation cards will be issued to delegates by accreditation centers once they arrive in Kazakhstan.

Transportation
Arrival to Airport
Transportation services will be provided at the international airports of Astana and Almaty. Designated vehicles will be available at the airport for transportation of arriving delegations to their hotels.

Transit Airport
Almaty international airport will serve as a transit-airport, where representatives of AWAGOC will assist participants to transfer to the flight to Astana.

Participants Transportation
It is planned to transport participants between the cities by air. However, the number of flights will differ depending on participants’ status. Local transportation of participants will be carried out using 30-seat buses which will be provided to the teams. Buses will be available at special bus-stops (parking lots), designed as part of the transport connection between the official hotels and competition/training venues, and will operate for 1-2 hours before and after competitions and trainings.

Transportation Service for Trainings and Competition
Transportation service will be provided to participants traveling between the competition venues and hotels. Any large and heavy luggage will be transported by designated vehicles.
Competition Equipment and Luggage Transportation

The Organizing Committee will help Games participants with transportation of competition equipment and luggage once they enter Kazakhstan. Games participants and their assistants are required to check their belongings, and attend the handling of their luggage together with AWAGOC representatives. The Organizing Committee will provide each team with Games luggage tags.

Accommodation & Fees

Athletes and officials of Freestyle Skiing competition will stay at the 4-star «Tyan Shan» Hotel in Almaty.

Accommodation fee for athletes and officials in quota:

50 $ USD per person per day

Accommodation fee for extra officials:

100 $ USD per person per day

Early registration and early arrivals:

100 $ USD per person per day

Catering

The main Games catering places for officials and athletes will be located at accommodation places. It is planned to have 3 buffet-type meals a day to reflect different tastes and religious preferences and to feature national cuisines from all countries of Asia including the host country. Taking into account the climatic conditions of the host cities and the varying distances to be traveled to the sports venues, appropriate and category-specific catering will be organized on sports venues as well. This measure is designed to provide hot meals to the athletes, coaches, staff and official guests of the Games away from the host city sports facilities. Food will be provided according to the relevant symbol on the accreditation cards of Games participants.
Freestyle Skiing Technical Information

Date and Competition Venues
Freestyle Skiing competitions will be held at the Tabagan Resort from January 31st to February 4th, 2011.

Organization of Competitions
Under the supervision and instructions of the OCA and FIS, the technical delegates and technical officials will work with the Competition Commission of AWAGOC, a body responsible for organizing the Freestyle Skiing competition.

Technical Delegates and Referees
FIS with OCA’s approval will appoint technical officials, technical delegates, arbiters and referees. Other referees and competition officials will be designated by AWAGOC.

Timing
Electronic timing system will be customized to the competitions and it shall be operated in accordance with the regulations of FIS.

Draw
All the draws related to competitions will be conducted in conformity with the FIS regulation and under strict supervision.
Protest
All protests and appeals concerning technical aspects of the competitions will be conducted according to the FIS regulations.

Awards
The awards to be presented to athletes who rank among the first six places are as follows:
First place: gold-filled silver medal and certificate.
Second place: silver medal and certificate.
Third place: bronze medal and certificate.
Forth to sixth: certificate.

Doping Control
Doping test will be conducted under the guidance of the OCA Medical Committee and in accordance with the World Anti-Doping Code and international doping test standards. The Almaty Athletes’ Anti-Doping Laboratory, which was recognized by IOC and WADA, will serve as the test lab for the Games. Test results will be issued within 72 hours. Tabagan Resort will be the site of sample collection for athletes joining Freestyle Skiing competitions. The number of athletes to be tested and the principles of selection will be determined by the OCA Medical Committee. In the event of any positive test result, the Chairman of OCA Medical Committee will report to the OCA and take appropriate actions on the case.

Tabagan Resort in Brief
The Tabagan Resort was constructed in compliance with the cutting-edge world standards for comparable level ski resorts. The resort is fitted with technical equipment manufactured in Austria, Netherlands and Russia.
The name of the complex comes from the word “toboggan”. North Native American tribes used this word to define a “wide-runner wooden winter sleigh”. Literally, “Tabagan” means merry sleigh riding.
The “Tabagan” sports-entertainment complex and ski resort was built in 2005.
It is located in the vicinity of Almaty (19 km.) at an altitude of 1,530m above sea level. The overall length of courses of various complexity levels is 37 km.
The length of the double-chair cableway totals 1,000 meters.
There are two platter pulls:
- 650m long.
- 800m long.
The complex has an artificial snow making machine operating.
There are 2 restaurants featuring Mexican, local and European cuisine at Tabagan.
The complex has the capacity to accommodate up to 200 persons in the European level rooms of its rental cottages and hotels.
