Introduction to the Olympic Council of Asia Constitution & Rules

The OCA Constitution is the codification of the Fundamental Principles of the Olympic Charter; Council Rules & Bye Laws adopted by the OCA General Assembly. It governs the organisation, action and operation of the OCA Movement and sets forth the conditions for the celebration of all the different Asian Games. The Constitution serves as the Statutes for the OCA and is binding upon on all its members.
Formation of the Olympic Council of Asia

A decision to form the OCA was taken in New Delhi in the AGF Council meeting held on 26th November 1981 which was attended by the duly accredited representatives of the affiliated NOCs of Asia. The Constitution of the OCA was formally approved and adopted in this meeting and came into force on the conclusion of the 9th AG held in New Delhi in November 1982.

The OCA was officially formed and established on 16th November 1982 in New Delhi, during the first GA of the OCA. A list of the 34 designated founder-members who attended both the AGF Council meeting and OCA GA is attached as Annex 1 to this constitution.
Preamble

OCA has full jurisdiction over Olympic Movements in Asia, all OCA Games being the property of OCA, and over the use of their names, symbols, flags, mottos, logos and the like.

Under the supreme authority and leadership of the Olympic Council of Asia, the Olympic Movement in Asia encompasses organizations, athletes and other persons who agree to be guided by the OCA Constitution.

The goal of the Olympic Movement in Asia is to contribute to building a peaceful and better Asian society by educating youth through sport practiced in accordance with Olympism and its values.

The three main constituents of the Olympic Movement in Asia are the Olympic Council of Asia ("OCA"), the Asian Sports Federations ("AFs") and the National Olympic Committees ("NOCs").

In addition to its three main constituents, the Olympic Movement in Asia also encompasses the Organizing Committees for the Asian Games ("AGOCs"), the national federations, clubs and persons belonging to the AFs and NOCs, particularly the athletes, whose interests constitute a fundamental element of the Olympic Movement’s action, as well as the judges, referees, coaches and the other sports officials and technicians. It also includes other organizations and institutions as recognized by the OCA.

Any person or organization belonging in any capacity whatsoever to the Olympic Movement in Asia is bound by the provisions of the Olympic Charter/OCA Constitution and shall abide by the decisions of the OCA.

Reference to Clauses, Sub-clauses and Appendices are, unless otherwise stated, references to clauses and sub-clauses of and appendices to this Constitution.

Unless the context otherwise requires, words importing the singular include the plural and vice versa, words importing the masculine gender include the feminine and neuter and vice versa.

References to “include”, “including” and the like are to be interpreted without limitation.

Headings are for convenience only and shall not affect the interpretation of this constitution.

Any decision regarding the change of the HQ shall be adopted only if three quarters (3/4) of the Member NOCs of the OCA vote in favour of the change at a GA duly convened for the purpose of considering a motion to this effect.

Article 32
Contributions and Accounts

1. For each financial year, the Director General, shall prepare “Statement of Accounts”.

2. These “Annual Statement of Account” shall be audited by an “Internationally Certified Auditor”

3. The Director General will be responsible to reply to any queries from the Finance Committee, EB or GA;

4. The financial year of the OCA commences on 1st January and ends on 31st December of the same year.

Bye-law to Article 32

The OCA shall accept any contribution/donation or free grant from any source based on a written agreement. The utilization of these funds will be as per the terms of the agreement. These funds should not be mixed with the OCA official accounts.

Article 33
Hosting of GA and EB Meetings

Members interested to host a GA or EB meetings must apply to the OCA HQ secretariat six (6) months in advance and in their letter of interest give guarantees to fulfill the following requirements:

1. To grant all the concerned Members entry visas without delay;

2. To cover all expenses to be incurred for the meeting. This will include board and lodging, local transportation, translation, publication and other administrative requirements;

3. The expenses to be covered will be EB Members, Standing Committee Members and three (3) delegates per NOC, IOC Members, OCA HQ Staff & representatives from Past and future AGOCs.
Article 34
Settlement of Disputes/Complaints between OCA/NOC/AF

All member of OCA and AF’s, whose EB is recognized by OCA EB in accordance with Article 13 of this Constitution, shall submit to the following means of settlement of disputes to the exclusion of any other means:

1. Every NOCs Member shall be deemed to hold its membership of the OCA on the specific condition that it voluntarily surrenders its right of seeking redress against the OCA in any Court of Law;

2. Disputes relating to the interpretation and implementation of this Statute, bye laws, regulations or resolutions or decisions of OCA different bodies shall be resolved by a final and binding decision of OCA Executive Board.

3. Disputes between OCA and any of its Member NOC’s or AF’s or individual members of Member NOC’s or AF’s or between Member NOC’s or AF’s themselves or between individual members of OCA shall be resolved by a final decision of OCA Executive Board.

4. Decisions of OCA GA, or OCA Executive Board other than those issued in accordance with para. 1 or the sanctions imposed by the Ethics Committee may be appealed to the Court of Arbitration for Sports (CAS) in Lausanne.

5. Any dispute between OCA and any contractors, employees or sponsors shall be resolved by a decision of the Court of Arbitration for Sports (CAS). Any agreement with a sponsor or contractor must include a provision to that end.

6. The time limit for appeal is 21 days from the issuance of the appealed decision.

7. The Decision of the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS) shall be final and binding on the parties.

8. By accepting this Statute, NOC’s and AF’s submit to the jurisdiction of the Court of Arbitration for sport (CAS) and should amend their Statutes accordingly.

Bye-Law to Article 34

The Court of Arbitration for Sports (CAS) in association with the OCA will set up a small working group from CAS that will be present and working alongside the OCA in the Asian Games period only, on the same lines as done during the Olympic Games. The participating athletes can address any issues that they may have directly with CAS, during the Asian Games.
Article 35  Appeal

Final decision of the Arbitration Panel, formed in accordance with Article 34, can be appealed to the Court of Arbitration for Sports (CAS) in Lausanne.

The deadline to appeal is 21 days as of notification of the decision. CAS shall not however hear appeals on violation of the Technical Rules or Laws of the Games.

Article 36  Unsportsmanlike Behaviour and Acts of Violence

The Olympics, OCA GAMES, Regional, International or other Championships approved by the OCA, prohibits any unsportsmanlike behaviour. This can be on the part of a competitor, official or coach and include non-conformity to the OCA Constitution/Commercial Guidelines, insulting, making obscene gestures, opposing officials’ decisions, provoking opponents or spectators, disrespecting the rules of the OCA and its Flag and any disrespect shown to the OCA GAMES and its Medals. Generally unsportsmanlike behaviour is committing any act not in keeping with the propriety of sports and will not be condoned by the NOC concerned. In an event of such behaviour the OCA will review the case and take appropriate action including but not limited to disqualification, withdrawal of medals, certificates, accreditation and rankings.

Bye-Law to Article 36

1. No kind of demonstration, political, religious or racial propaganda is permitted in any OCA GAMES sites, venues or other area, associated with the games;

2. No form of publicity or propaganda, commercial or otherwise, may appear on persons, on sportswear, accessories or, more generally, on any article of clothing or equipment whatsoever worn or used by the athletes or other participants in the OCA GAMES, except for the identification – as defined in the OCA GAMES Marketing Guidelines- of the manufacturer of the article or equipment concerned, provided that such identification shall not be marked conspicuously for advertising purposes.
Article 37

Violations/complaints

1. In case of allegations and/or complaint of violation of the OCA Constitution or misbehavior that jeopardizes the reputation or interests of OCA, the accusing individual or organization (sport or non-sport) shall provide the necessary supporting documentation-proof to the OCA within a maximum of 60 days of such accusation. The OCA Executive Board shall refer the case with all supporting documents to the Ethics Committee of OCA within 30 days of receiving the complaint or coming across such allegations. The Board shall ignore any allegations of complaints that are not supported by valid evidence or documents;

2. The OCA Ethics Committee will look into the case and the proof/documents provided and carry out their investigation and provide their decision within 60 days after receiving the full documents from the accusing party. The Chairman can ask for extension of a maximum of 21 days if the deadline of 60 days elapses.

3. The accused can appeal against the decision of the OCA Ethics Committee to CAS only within 21 days of the decision of the Ethics Committee.

4. For any sports related issue a member/individual shall be presumed innocent and no action shall be taken against the member/individual whom the allegations are made against or the complaint was presented against, until a final decision is made against his/her favour by the Ethics Committee of OCA. However, the Ethics Chairman can suspend the member temporarily for a maximum of 90 days until the final decision is made by the Ethics Committee. A Member is free to relieve himself of his/her responsibilities and duties until a final decision is made by the OCA Ethics Committee.

5. For non sports related issues, the OCA Ethics Committee may take an action at its own discretion or wait for the final enforcement decision by the competent courts.

6. If the Ethics Committee of OCA finds the accusations or the complaint baseless, the OCA shall take all necessary measures to seek redress for the accused member and for the OCA for damages to reputation.

7. If the final judgement is innocence or no case, by CAS/or any court of law regarding any OCA Member, the OCA shall take the necessary action/actions to protect the interests of OCA and seek compensation for any damage, in any court of law; in or outside Asia.
8. In any case, any allegation against OCA Member, individual staff or EB relating to acts committed during OCA activity or event shall not be admitted after 5 years of such acts. Allegations of acts not occurred during OCA activity or events, shall be left to the jurisdiction of the State where they occurred.

Article 38  Confidentiality/Non-Disclosure Agreement/complaints

1. All OCA Members, President, EB Members, Director General, Committee Members, Staff, Employees are obliged not to disclose, use or disseminate OCA-Owned information, documents etc., until ten (10) years after leaving the OCA, subject to the decision of the OCA Judicial bodies and courts of law which specifically ask for release of such information.

2. The documents, Data, archive and all other materials that belong to OCA and Asian Games are the sole property of OCA and shall not be used by any person for any purpose without a prior written authorization from OCA. OCA has the right to sue any person who uses such documents, Data, archive or any other materials that belong to OCA and Asian Games without a prior written authorization, in any court of law;

Article 39  OCA Records

1. Records of OCA must be maintained and kept physically or electronically for 5 years. The management may keep certain documents for more than five years upon a decision of the OCA Executive Board.

2. OCA may take no action with respect to OCA Constitution and Rules & Regulations unless such action is taken within 5 years of the events to which it relates. The limitation period, when applicable, shall be prolonged if proceedings are opened and/or suspended

Article 40  Residual Powers

1. The EB will decide on all matters relating to the interpretation and application of the Constitution, as well as all matters not provided herein;

2. In the event of disagreement concerning the Rules, the interpretation of these Rules shall be within the competence of the GA whose decision shall be final;

3. In the absence of any provision to the contrary in the Constitution, Rules, Regulations and Bye-laws of the OCA, the decision of the EB will be final.
Article 41

Miscellaneous

1. The OCA may sue or be sued in the name of the President. A law suit can only be filed at the CAS;

2. No decisions taken by the GA, save as provided elsewhere, shall be modified or cancelled;

3. The EB may, at its discretion, frame, amend or delete Bye-laws by a simple majority of EB, provided they are not inconsistent with or contrary to this Constitution, for the proper and efficient administration of the OCA.

Article 42

Official Language

ENGLISH will be the official language of the OCA. The GA will decide on other languages to be used by the OCA from time to time and in the event of a special occasion.

Article 43  Celebration of the OCA GAMES

1. The OCA, in accordance with its constitutional rights, decides the city in a country and the approximate time of the year for the celebration of the OCA GAMES. This decision, save in exceptional circumstances, must take place within eight (8) years beforehand. However the OCA EB may decide otherwise to allot the games before or after the period of eight (8) years. It entrusts the holding of the Games to a Member. The Member can delegate the duties, which have been entrusted to it, to an AGOC chosen by itself whose officials may henceforth correspond directly with the OCA;
   a. The Asian Games (AG) are numbered consecutively every four (4) years from the first AG celebrated in New Delhi, India in 1951;
   b. The Asian Winter Games (AWG) are numbered consecutively every four (4) years from the 1st AWG celebrated in Sapporo, Japan in 1986;
   c. The Asian Indoor and Martial Arts Games (AIMAG) are numbered consecutively every four (4) years from the 1st Asian Indoor Games (AIG) celebrated in Bangkok, Thailand in 2005;
   d. The Asian Beach Games (ABG) are numbered consecutively every two (2) years from the 1st ABG celebrated in Bali, Indonesia in 2008;
   e. The AYG are numbered consecutively every four (4) Years from the 1st AYG celebrated in Singapore in 2009.

2. The dates of the OCA GAMES are determined by the EB;

3. The non-celebration of the OCA GAMES during the year in which they should be held results in the cancellation of all the rights of the host city without prejudice to any other OCA rights;

4. Any surplus incurred by a host city, an AGOC or host NOC as a result of the OCA GAMES shall be applied to the development of sport and the Asian Sports Movement;

5. The EB will have total authority over any special fund/programme created as a result of the celebration of the OCA GAMES;

6. The OCA may include in its Games Programme a sport which has no IF controlling it. Pending the formation of such an International/Asian Sports Federation, the OCA may give recognition, for OCA GAMES purposes, to a body set up to control the sport concerned in Asia;

7. Where an International Body controlling a sport already exists, but is not recognised by the IOC, the OCA may give it recognition in so far as the OCA GAMES are concerned;
8. In case of a dispute between the controlling bodies of a sport included in the OCA GAMES Programme, the EB decision will be final;

9. The AGOC wishing to include sports from the sports programmes of other games like the AIMAG, ABG or the AYG or vice versa will have to seek the written approval of the OCA President before its inclusion in the programme.

Bye Law to Article 43

1. The OCA GAMES should not be held as part of other events such as Fairs or Exhibitions;

2. No other sports events of importance should be held 120 days before and after and/or in the vicinity of the venue of the OCA GAMES without the prior knowledge and agreement of the OCA;

3. The Sport selected by the AGOC from the OCA GAMES Programme list and OCA Recognised Sports List, must be approved by the EB.

Article 44

Time and Duration

1. The AG shall, as far as possible, take place one year before the Olympic Games Only in exceptional cases can they be adjourned, with the express consent of the OCA, to another year;

2. The time and the date when the AG are to be held will be decided by the EB;

Article 45

Election of the Host City of the OCA GAMES

1. The election of any host city is the prerogative of the GA;

2. The events shall all take place in or as near as possible to the city chosen. The city chosen cannot share its privilege with another nor can it permit any deviation from the agreed programme or the Regulations of the OCA GAMES unless with the written approval of the OCA for specified sports requiring special facilities;
3. The EB determines the procedure to be followed until the election by the GA takes place;

4. The election of the host city takes place in a country having no candidate city for the organisation of the OCA GAMES concerned;

5. The National Government of the country of any applicant city must submit to the OCA a legally binding instrument by which the said government undertakes and guarantees that the country and its public authorities will comply with and respect the OCA Constitution, Host City Contract and OCA Decisions and the OCA Ethics Code.

Article 46
Liabilities – Withdrawal of the organising of the OCA GAMES

1. The NOC, AGOC and the host city are jointly and severally liable for all commitments entered into individually or collectively concerning the organisation and staging of the OCA GAMES, Including, but not limited to the financial responsibility for the organisation and staging of such games, which is assumed jointly and severally between the host city and AGOC, without prejudice to any liability of any other party, as result from any guarantee given pursuant to Article 42. The OCA shall have no financial responsibility whatsoever in respect of the organisation and staging of the OCA GAMES;

2. In the event of non compliance with the OCA Constitution/OCA Ethics Code, HCC, Guidelines or any other decision/instructions from the OCA, The EB is entitled to withdraw, at any time and with immediate effect, the organisation of the OCA GAMES without prejudice to compensation for damage caused to the OCA as a result. In such a case, the NOC, AGOC, host city, country and all their governmental or other authorities, and any other party, whether at any city, local, state provincial, regional or national level, shall have no claim for any form of compensation against the OCA;

3. Should the AGOC decide to withdraw the games at their own behest and for internal reasons within the country, the AGOC will forfeit the bank guarantees provided to the OCA or any penalties as levied by the OCA Executive Board.
Article 47  Application to hold the OCA GAMES

1. The honour of holding the OCA GAMES will be entrusted to a Member. The choice of a city for the celebration of the Games lies solely with the Member concerned;

2. Application to hold the OCA GAMES shall be made by a Member only as per the guidelines mentioned in the bidding manual. The Member must have the written approval of its Government as well as the City Authorities, declaring its support to the holding of the Games with guarantee of free entry to delegates of participating countries, as well as safety of the athletes, officials and delegates of the participating countries;

3. When making a bid for the OCA GAMES a non-refundable bid must be paid to the OCA along with the application. A further payment must then be paid by the winning NOC to OCA within thirty (30) days after the allotment of the OCA GAMES;

4. The City allotted the honour of hosting the OCA GAMES will pay to the OCA, a refundable guarantee, within Two (2) month after the signing of the HCC. This amount will stand as a guarantee against forfeiture or failure to hold the games or to comply with the agreement in full or in part by the AGOC, as deemed fit by the EB. The refund to the AGOC or NOC will be made only after the settlement of all OCA GAMES account and the submission of the final report by the AGOC;

5. Board and Lodging as well as internal transportation for the EB Members, Standing Committee Members, IOC Members, OCA Officials HQ and three (3) NOCs delegates attending the GA Representatives of Past and future AGOCs (where applicable), will be covered by the AGOC; The OCA Guidelines on Accommodation and Transportation will apply;

6. The AGOC will also provide free board and lodging to three (3) delegates per NOC, including the President, Secretary General or their nominees for the entire duration of the Games. The AGOC will also allow one (1) replacement in each of the category (President, Secretary General & One delegate) in respect of accommodation, accreditation and transportation;

7. The AGOC shall bear the cost of board and lodging as well as round trip airfare for the President, Secretary General, Technical Delegate, Referees, Judges, Umpires, Time-Keepers, Inspectors and other officials of the IF and AF, whose sport is included for competition during the OCA GAMES based on the IF/AF Rules;

8. The election of the Host City of the OCA GAMES shall not be held at the time of the OCA GAMES; unless specifically approved by the EB.

Bye-law to Article 47

1. Application

An application for the allotment of the OCA GAMES must be countersigned by the Government of the country, endorsed by the cities authorities and accompanied by an adequate guarantee that the Games will be organised to the satisfaction and requirements of the OCA. The application must include answers to the questions raised in the OCA GAMES Bid Manual and the OCA Games Questionnaire which will be provided by the OCA to each of the bidding cities. The application should be accompanied by a clear guarantee that:

a. There are no laws, customs or regulations in the suggested city or in the country that would limit, restrict or interfere with the Games in any way i.e. the free entry of teams, officials and delegates from any Members as well as import of equipments without any custom duty and no withholding taxes;

b. Guarantee that the Games will be conducted properly and in accordance with the Fundamental Principles, Protocol, Rules and Bye-laws of the OCA;

b. The EB may, for good and sufficient reasons, place before the GA of the OCA any application submitted to it after expiry of the limit prescribed in (a) above;

c. The GA of the OCA shall, as far as possible, take the decision regarding the site at least eight (8) years in advance.

3. HCC

The OCA shall enter into a written agreement with the Member and the host city chosen by the Member. The agreement shall specify in detail the obligations incumbent upon them. Such agreement shall be signed immediately upon the election of the Member to hold the OCA GAMES. The form of agreement will be included in the bid documents supplied to candidate Members and each application shall be accompanied by a statement agreeing to sign such agreement upon election to hold the Games.
4. Government Guarantee
   a. In addition to the guarantee for free entry of delegates referred to in Article 44 (2), the Government of the Member shall guarantee entry into the host country, all horses, equipments and supplies to be used during or in connection with any sports at the Games, free of any import duties or taxes;
   b. Each candidate city shall provide a financial guarantee as required by the OCA EB, which will determine whether such guarantees shall be issued by the city itself, or by any other local, regional or national public authorities.

5. Bidding City
   In the event of non-compliance with the OCA Constitution, Host City Contract, OCA Ethics Code, the OCA Guidelines and OCA EB decisions, the OCA Executive Board is entitled to withdraw at any time and with immediate effect the candidature of the city to host any Asian Games.

Article 48
Bidding Procedure for OCA GAMES

1. The OCA shall open the bids for the OCA GAMES at least eight (8) years in advance of the year in which the OCA GAMES are to be held or based on an EB decision. Upon the opening of the bid by the OCA, the interested NOCs will send their “Letter of Intent” to the OCA Secretariat within one month (30 days) accompanied by the non-refundable bid money;

2. The OCA shall send out the bid documents to these NOCs requesting them to submit their bid documents to the OCA within six (6) months;

3. Upon receipt of the bid documents, OCA President shall appoint an Evaluation Committee to visit the bid cities and submit a detailed report on each bid city to the EB and GA;

4. The EB will study the Evaluation Report and make a short list of a maximum of three (3) bid cities for selection at the GA. The Decision of the EB will be announced before the prescribed GA for selection of the HC;

5. From the official submission of the bids, the bidding cities may commence their campaign with the following approved activities;

6. No gifts or souvenirs of any value may be presented to any representatives of the NOCs or the EB Members of the OCA during the campaign period;

7. The Evaluation Committee and the EB in this order shall determine whether the organisation capacity of the bidding city qualifies them as candidates;

8. There shall be no NOC visits to candidate cities, without prejudice to the right of the EB to organise its own separate visit in case of any doubts about the capacity in any respect of a bidding city to undertake the organisation of the games;

9. The AGOC must agree to work with and report to the NOC and to act on such instructions as the OCA might give through the NOC or, as it may deem fit, direct to the AGOC with the knowledge of the NOC;

10. Any bid must be put forward by the NOC and its responsibility to supervise the preparations of the Games, if awarded, must be defined;

11. The EB has the power to disqualify the bidding city, after due warning, if it considers that the OCA directives and the fundamental principles as enshrined in the OCA Constitution, are not being adhere to in its totality;

12. All statements, written, oral or otherwise made by Bidding City or NOC during the course of their bidding and presentations in various OCA meetings and forums will be considered as binding commitment and should be executed, in full, by the Bidding Committees and subsequent AGOCs of such Games;

13. The Bidding Committee wishing to provide free board and lodging as well as free air tickets to the participants of the OCA GAMES should have the approval of the OCA and should be according to the OCA policy.

2. Respect the spirit of fair play and non-violence and abide by the rules on the sports field;

3. Comply with all aspects of WADA and OCA Anti-Doping Rules Code and refrain from using substances and drugs prohibited by the said organisations;

4. The Member must ensure that any competitor in the OCA GAMES must be a national of the country of the NOC, which is entering him;

5. Disputes relating to the determination of the country which a competitor may represent in the OCA GAMES shall be resolved by the EB, unless the eligibility code already set out in the Constitution has been fulfilled and is not in dispute.

Bye-law to Article 52

1. All cases of infringement of IOC Rule 41, 42 and its Bye-laws and of the eligibility code of IFs shall be communicated by the concerned Member to the OCA, to be considered by the EB whose decision will be final;

2. A competitor who is a national of two (2) or more countries at the same time may represent either one (1) of them, as he may elect. However after having represented one country in the Olympic, Asian continental regional or world championships recognised by the relevant IF, the competitor may not represent another country unless he or she meets the conditions set forth in sub section 4 below that apply to the persons who has changed his nationality or acquired a new nationality;

3. A competitor who has represented one country in the Olympic Games, OCA GAMES, continental, regional, and world championships recognised by the relevant IF, and who has changed his nationality or acquired a new nationality, shall not participate in the OCA GAMES to represent his new country until three years after such change or acquisition;

4. If a State, Country or a colony acquires independence, a country becomes incorporated within another country by a change of border or transfer of sovereignty or if a new NOC is recognised by the OCA, a competitor may continue to represent the country to which he belong or belonged. However, he may, if preferred, choose to represent his country or be entered in the OCA GAMES by his new NOC if one exists. This option can only be made once and is irreversible;

5. In all cases not expressly addressed in these Bye-Laws, in particular those cases where a competitor would be in a position to represent a country other than that of which he is a national, or to have choice as to the country which he intends to represent, the EB makes all decisions. Decisions can be of a general or individual nature and issue specific requirements relating to nationality, citizenship, domicile or residence of the competitors, including the duration of any waiting period;

6. Except as permitted by the EB, no competitor, coach or official who participates in the OCA GAMES may allow his person, name and picture or sports performances to be used for advertising purposes during the OCA GAMES.

Article 53 Necessary Conditions for representing a Country

1. Only nationals of member NOCs are eligible to represent that country in the OCA GAMES. Where a competitor’s nationality is the subject of scrutiny, evidence (passport, residency & other documents) must be produced to support and meet definition of eligibility, according to the rules prevailing in the particular sport in which the competitor wishes to take part.

It is not permissible for a competitor having once represented a country in the OCA GAMES or any international sports competition such as Olympic Games, Asian Games, World Games, Continental Games, Regional Games etc., to represent a different country in the future unless:

Article 77  Organisation of Different Sports

1. The OCA has complete control of the OCA GAMES. Certain responsibilities may be delegated to the AGOC. The organisation shall be carried out in accordance with the OCA Constitution and Rules as well as the Regulations and Protocol of the Games. Each IF or AF or body recognised by the OCA as the case may be will be responsible for the technical conduct of the OCA GAMES. All other issues concerning participation/eligibility and the like will be the full responsibility of the OCA. It shall choose one (1) or, in a special case, two (2) technical delegates, who should be present not more than five (5) days before the start of their sport to verify that the technical facilities and all equipment conform to the Rules of their Federation. The board and lodging of these delegates during this period and the duration of their sport must be paid by the AGOC in addition to round trip air ticket, as approved by OCA. The IF/AF will also select the International Technical officials and Technical Officials locally. Expenses to the participation of the ITOs and TOs including their transportation, board and lodging will be covered by AGOC. For each sport included in the OCA GAMES, the IF will appoint a Technical in addition to the Technical Delegate appointed by AF. All expenses in relations to the IF Technical delegate, including airfare and board and lodging will be covered by AGOC.

2. These technical delegates shall be selected by the IF/AF from Asian countries or, if not available, from other continents;

3. OCA President shall delegate his nominee or representative to each venue of the OCA GAMES, as Games Supervisor, to supervise the overall conduct of the sport, other than the technical rules pertaining to that sport, including TV, Marketing and Advertising Activities held at that venue. He shall have supreme authority at the venue during the period of the Games and shall report directly to the President OCA, whose decision will be final in relation to that event;

4. The IF and AF will strictly adhere to the rules and regulations of the OCA Constitution. In case of any disagreement between the two parties, the EB decision will be final.

Article 78  Judging the Events

1. The necessary technical officials (Such as Referees, Judges, Umpires, Time-Keepers, Inspectors) for each sport shall be nominated by the appropriate National Sports Organisation of the host country where internationally qualified officials are required to supervise competitions. They shall be nominated by the concerned IF and AFs. Subject to OCA approval, the Jury of Appeal shall be constituted by the AGOC in consultation with the IF and AFs. A delegate of each National Sports Organisation must be present at least five (5) days before the first event of its sport in order to deal with the entries in consultation with the technical delegates of the IF and AFs concerned. The officials and members of the juries must be eligible according to the Rules of the IF and AFs concerned;

2. The board and lodging of these delegates during the period and the duration of their sport must be paid by the AGOC in addition to round trip air ticket; as approved by OCA.

Bye-law to Article 78

The Technical Delegate should physically be present at the competition venues during the competition days of the OCA GAMES. Failing to do so may result in disqualification of the Technical Delegate by the OCA.

Article 79 Court of Appeal

1. The OCA EB on behalf of the OCA is the final Court of Appeal, which will decide all disputes of a non-technical nature concerning the OCA GAMES. Teams/Member NOC’s, if necessary, may submit disputes to the Court of Appeal. In addition, the Court of Appeal may intervene in all disputes of a non-technical nature outside the jurisdiction of the Juries of Appeal set up for each sport in the Programme;

2. The Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS) in association with the OCA will set up a small Adhoc working group from CAS that will be present and working alongside the OCA in the Asian Games period only, on the same lines as done during the Olympic Games. The participating athletes can address any issues that they may have directly with CAS, during the OCA Games.

Article 80 Claims

1. Claims made to the Judges on grounds concerning matters of fact are decided by them without appeal;

2. Appeals against other decisions of the Judges or with regard to any other matters must be addressed to the President of the Technical Jury of Appeal for the sport concerned by a representative of the team making the appeal;

3. Exceptional circumstances apart, a claim must be made within two hours of the decision giving rise to it. The Jury, after an investigation, shall give a decision and this decision shall be irrevocable, except in the case of disqualification of a team or of a competitor for infraction of the Rules and Regulations of the OCA. In these cases it shall be decided by the Court of Appeal;

4. All claims and appeals must be made in writing.

Article 81

Penalties in Case of Fraud

A competitor proved to have transgressed by fraud the Rules of the OCA shall be disqualified and lose any position he or she may have gained. If this competitor’s team is proved to have been party to the fraud, his/her team shall be disqualified in the sport involved.

Article 82

Prizes

1. The prizes of the OCA GAMES shall be provided by the AGOC for distribution by the OCA. They consist of medals and diplomas. All competitors and officials of the Games shall receive a Commemorative Medal. In individual events, the first prize shall be a Gold medal and a diploma, the second prize a silver medal and a diploma, the third prize a bronze medal and a diploma, and an additional third prize shall be awarded if the rules of the sports so require. Diplomas shall also be given for fourth, fifth and sixth places. In team events, each member of the winning team which participated in the final match shall be given a Gold medal and a diploma, the second team a silver medal and a diploma and the third team a bronze medal and a diploma;

2. Those team members who did not participate in the final matches are given diplomas but no medals. Participating members of the teams placed fourth, fifth and sixth, (accepting such sports as may require different treatment) are given diplomas only;

3. All participants in a tie, either in individual or team events will be entitled to receive both a medal and a diploma;

4. Diplomas and Commemorative Medals shall be given to all team officials who are attached to participating teams and are certified by the Members of their respective countries, within the limits of the numbers prescribed in the Olympic Games;

5. The OCA symbol should be a part of all the Games medals and diplomas and the design should have the approval of the OCA.

Article 83 Classification

In the OCA GAMES there is no scoring by countries. A Roll of Honour in alphabetical order by names shall be compiled by the AGOC, for the first six (6) competitors in each event, and delivered to the OCA.

Article 84 Booklets and Programmes

A handbook containing the programmes and the general rules shall be printed in English and distributed by the AGOC not less than one year before the Games open. The handbook, the programmes and such other printed materials shall not contain any advertising matter, unless specifically stated in the sponsorship agreement or approved by the EB in writing.

Article 85 Accommodation

1. Unless specially excused from this provision by the OCA, the AGOC shall provide an OCA GAMES Village, so that the competitors and team officials shall be accommodated together and fed at a minimum price. The Athletes Village, its design layout should have the approval of the OCA;

2. Arrangements shall also be made for the accommodation of the Judges, Umpires, Referees, Inspectors, Time-Keepers, etc. appointed by the AGOC and IFs/AFs within the limits approved by the OCA EB;
3. In addition to the above, the provisions mentioned in the OCA Accommodation Guidelines will also be applicable.

OCA Ethics Committee

A Composition and Organisation:

1. The OCA Ethics Committee (the Committee) is independent; it is composed of five (5) Members;

2. The Members of the Committee shall be designated by the OCA President, and their appointment is subject to ratification by the OCA Executive Board;

3. The Chairperson of the Committee shall be appointed by the OCA President;

4. The Committee reports to the OCA Executive Board;

5. The Committee meets when convened by its Chairperson, at least on a semi-annual basis. The required quorum is constituted if at least three of the Members are present;

6. The Committee shall be assisted by a Secretary appointed by the Committee Chairperson in consultation with the OCA President. His or her tasks are defined in a job description approved by the Committee Chairperson and the OCA President.

B Terms of Reference of the Committee:

1. In the framework of the competence of the Committee as defined in the OCA Constitution, the terms of reference of the Committee are:

   a. To provide opinions and recommendations to the OCA Executive Board on cases submitted by the OCA President, and to give advice at the request of the OCA Members and/or Members of the Olympic Movement;

   b. To perform any other task, linked to the development of and respect for the ethical principles, assigned to it by the OCA Executive Board and/or the OCA President.
2. The Committee presents an annual report on its activities to the OCA General Assembly. This report will be published.

C

Conditions required for Committee Membership:

Members of the Committee shall not take any measure nor exercise any influence in relation to a matter where any conflict of interests or any other conflict exists or is perceived to exist.

Terms of appointment of Committee Members:

1. The duration of the term of a Committee member is four (4) years. Such term is renewable. The term of a person who is a Committee member by virtue of his or her OCA Membership shall end when such person ceases to be an OCA Member. He or she may however be appointed as a Committee member in the category of persons who are not OCA Members;

2. The term of office of a Committee member takes effect on the day his/her appointment is approved by the OCA Executive Board;

3. In the event of the Chairperson being impeded from performing his or her duties as Chairperson, the longest serving member of the Committee shall perform these functions;

   In the event of death, resignation or inability of a member to perform his or her functions, the member shall be replaced;

   Any member of the Committee who is to be replaced shall remain in office until a replacement has been approved by the OCA Executive Board.

4. A Committee member may be removed from office only by a decision of the OCA Executive Board and with the approval of two-thirds of the Committee Members, the member concerned being heard by the Committee.
Measure and Sanctions:

In the case of any violation of the Olympic Charter, ANOC/OCA Constitutions, approved NOC Statutes by the IOC/OCA and the World Anti-Doping Code, or any other regulation, as the case may be, the measures or sanctions which may be taken by the OCA GA, the OCA Executive Board:

d. During the Games the OCA Executive Board may delegate its power to Working Group/Disciplinary Committee appointed by the OCA President;

3. Before applying any measure or sanction, the competent OCA body may issue a warning.

4. All sanctions and measures are taken without prejudice to any other rights of the OCA and of any other body, including but not limited to NOCs and IFs/AFs.

5. Any inquiry relating to facts that may lead to any measure or sanction is conducted under the authority of the OCA Executive Board, which may delegate all or part of its authority to that effect.

6. Throughout any inquiry, the OCA Executive Board may provisionally withdraw from any concerned person or organisation all or part of the rights, prerogatives and functions deriving from such person’s or organisation’s Membership or status.

7. Any individual, team or any other individual or legal entity has the right to be heard by the OCA body competent to apply a measure or sanction to such individual, team or legal entity. The right to be heard in the sense of this provision includes the right to be acquainted with the charges and the right to appear personally or to submit a defense in writing within 7 days from the decision been issued.
8. Any measure or sanction decided by the OCA GA, the OCA Executive Board or the Working Group/Disciplinary Committee shall be communicated in writing to the party concerned.

9. All measures or sanctions shall be effective forthwith unless the competent body decides otherwise.
Preamble:

The Olympic Council of Asia and each of its Members, the cities wishing to organise the Asian Games, the Organising Committees of the Asian Games and the National Olympic Committees and its Members (hereinafter “the Asian Olympic Parties”) restate their commitment to the OCA Constitution and in particular its Fundamental Principles. The Asian Olympic Parties affirm their loyalty to the Olympic ideal inspired by Pierre de Coubertin.

Consequently, at all times the Asian Olympic Parties and, in the framework of the Asian Games, the participants undertake to respect and ensure respect of the present OCA Code.

The NOCs/Asian Federations and Recognised Organisation’s shall adopt a code of ethics based on the principles and rules of the OCA Code of Ethics or adopt the OCA Code of Ethics in a written declaration.

A Dignity

1. Safeguarding the dignity of the individual is a fundamental requirement of Olympism.

2. There shall be no discrimination between the participants on the basis of race, gender, ethnic origin, religion, philosophical or political opinion, marital status or other grounds.

3. All doping practices at all levels are strictly prohibited. The provisions against doping in the World Anti-Doping Code shall be scrupulously observed.

4. All forms of harassment of participants are it physical, professional or sexual, and any physical or mental injuries to participants, are prohibited.

5. All forms of participation in, or support for betting related to the Asian Games, and all forms of promotion of betting related to the Asian Games are prohibited.

6. Also, in the context of betting, participants in the Asian Games must not, by any manner whatsoever, infringe the principle of fair play, show non-sporting conduct, or attempt to influence the course or result of a competition, or any part thereof, in a manner contrary to sporting ethics.

7. The NOCs shall guarantee the athlete’s conditions of safety; well-being and medical care favorable to their physical and mental equilibrium.

B Integrity

1. The Asian Olympic Parties or their representatives shall not, directly or indirectly, solicit, accept or offer any form of remuneration or Commission, nor any concealed benefit or service of any nature, connected with the organisation of the Asian Games.

2. The hospitality shown to the Members and staff of the Asian Olympic Parties, and the persons accompanying them, shall not exceed the standards prevailing in the Host country.

3. The Asian Olympic Parties shall respect the Rules Concerning Conflicts of Interests Affecting the behaviour of Asian Olympic Parties.

4. The Asian Olympic Parties shall use due care and diligence in fulfilling their mission. They must not act in a manner likely to tarnish the reputation of the Olympic Movement.

5. The Asian Olympic Parties, their agents or their representatives must not be involved with firms or persons whose activity or reputation is inconsistent with the principles set out in the OCA Constitution and the present Code.

6. The Asian Olympic Parties shall neither give nor accept instructions to vote or intervene in a given manner within the organs of the OCA.
C Good Governance and Resources

1. The Basic Universal Principles of Good Governance of the Olympic and Sports Movement, in particular transparency, responsibility and accountability, must be respected by all Asian Olympic Movement constituents.

2. The Olympic resources of the NOCs may be used only for Olympic purposes.

3. The income and expenditure of the NOCs shall be recorded in their accounts, which must be maintained in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. An independent auditor will check these accounts.

4. In cases where the OCA gives financial support to Asian Olympic Parties:
   a. The use of these OCA/Olympic resources for OCA/Olympic purposes must be clearly demonstrated in the accounts;
   b. The accounts of the Asian Olympic Parties may be subjected to auditing by an expert designated by the OCA Executive Board;

5. The Asian Olympic Parties recognise the significant contribution that broadcasters, Sponsors, partners and other supporters of sports events make to the development and prestige of the Asian Games throughout the world. However, such support must be in a form consistent with the rules of sport and the principles defined in the OCA Constitution and the present Code. They must not interfere in the running of sports institutions. The organisation and staging of sports competitions are the exclusive responsibility of the independent sports organisations recognised by the OCA.

D Candidatures

1. The Asian Olympic Parties shall in all points respect the various manuals published by the OCA linked to the selection of Host cities of the Asian Games, in particular the Rules of Conduct Applicable to All Cities Wishing to Organise the Asian Games.
2. The cities wishing to organise the Asian Games shall, refrain from approaching another party, or a third authority, with a view to obtaining any financial or political support inconsistent with the provisions of such manuals and the Rules of Conduct.

E Relations with states

1. The Asian Olympic Parties shall work to maintain harmonious relations with state authorities, in accordance with the principle of universality and political neutrality of the Olympic Movement.

2. The Asian Olympic Parties are free to play a role in the public life of the states to which they belong. They may not, however, engage in any activity or follow any ideology inconsistent with the principles and rules defined in the OCA Constitution/Olympic Charter and set out in the present Code.

3. The Asian Olympic Parties shall endeavour to protect the environment on the occasion of any events they organise. In the context of the Asian Games, they undertake to uphold generally accepted standards for environmental protection.

F Confidenciality

The Asian Olympic Parties shall not disclose information entrusted to them in confidence. The principle of confidentiality shall be strictly respected by the OCA Ethics Committee in all its activities. Disclosure of other information shall not be for personal gain or benefit, nor be undertaken maliciously to damage the reputation of any person or organisation.

G Implementation

1. The Asian Olympic Parties shall see to it that the principles and rules of the OCA Constitution/Olympic Charter and the present Code are applied.
2. The Asian Olympic Parties shall inform the OCA President of any breach of the present Code, with a view to possible referral to the OCA Ethics Committee.

3. The OCA Ethics Committee may set out the provisions for the implementation of the present Code in a set of implementing provisions.
Rules concerning conflict of interests affecting the behaviour of Asian Olympic Parties

Article 1  Scope of Application

These Rules apply to Asian Olympic Parties as defined by the OCA Code of Ethics.

Preamble: the Olympic Council of Asia and each of its Members, National Olympic Committees, Organising Committees for the Asian Games, cities wishing to organise the Asian Games and, in the frame of the Asian Games, to the participants.

With respect to legal persons among the Olympic Parties, these Rules are applicable to all Members or staff with actual decision-making power within them. Each such legal person may define other categories of persons for whom these Rules can be applicable, while informing the OCA Ethics Committee.

Article 2  Definition

1. In the context of the provisions of these Rules, a distinction is made between the situation of a “Potential Conflict of Interests” and the case of a “Conflict of Interests”. Only Conflicts of Interests are prohibited.

2. A situation of a Potential Conflict of Interests arises when the opinion or decision of a person, acting alone or within an organisation, in the framework of the activities of the physical or legal persons defined in article 1 above, may be reasonably considered as liable to be influenced by relations that the aforementioned person has, has had or is on the point of having with another person or organisation that would be affected by the person’s opinion or decision.

3. A case of Conflict of Interests is constituted when any person who, having abstained from declaring a situation of a potential conflict of interests, expresses an opinion or takes a decision in the circumstances described in the above paragraph 2.
Article 3  Types of Interests to take into consideration

In assessing the situations described in article 2 above, direct as well as indirect interests must be taken into account. This also includes the interests of a third person (parent, spouse, relation or dependent).

In the following non-exhaustive list of examples, the circumstances in which a conflict of interests could arise are:

a. Personal and/or material involvement (salary, shareholding, various benefits) with;

b. Personal and/or material involvement with Sponsors, broadcasters, various contracting Parties;

c. Personal and/or material involvement with an organisation liable to benefit from the assistance of the Olympic party concerned (including subsidy, approval clause or election).

Article 4  Resolution of Conflicts

It is the personal responsibility of each person to avoid any case of conflict of interests.

Faced with a situation of a potential conflict of interests, the person concerned must refrain from accepting any form of benefit whatsoever. However, if the person wishes to continue to act or if the person is uncertain as to the steps to take, the person must inform the OCA Ethics Committee of the situation; the OCA Ethics Committee then takes the steps foreseen in article 5. The information given will be kept confidential.

Article 5  Role of the OCA Ethics Committee:

The OCA Ethics Committee is responsible for advising persons/Asian Sports Body, at their request, in a situation of a potential conflict of interests.

The Committee proposes to the person concerned a solution from the following options:

a. Registering the declaration without any particular measure;

b. Removal of the person involved from part or all of the action or from the decision of the Asian Olympic Party at the root of the conflict;

c. Relinquishment of the management of the external interest causing the conflict.

Complementary measures may also be proposed.

The person concerned then takes the steps that he/she considers appropriate, subject to the Committee’s application of the second paragraph of article 7 below.

Article 6
Procedure

Any case of conflict of interests is dealt with in accordance with the provisions of the OCA Constitution and the Rules of Procedure of the OCA Ethics Committee.

The OCA Executive Board is responsible, in the final instance, for taking decisions concerning conflicts of interests.

Article 7
Undeclared Conflicts of Interests

In the event that a person neglects to declare a situation of a potential conflict of interests, the OCA President may refer the case to the OCA Ethics Committee in accordance with the conditions set out in its rules.

The OCA Ethics Committee proposes to the OCA President/Executive Board a decision that may include the measures and sanctions as provided in this OCA Ethics Code and sanctions as defined in Article 13, of the OCA Constitution.

Article 8
Specific Provisions

Prior to examination, by the OCA Executive Board, of a candidature for election as an OCA Member, a Candidate must declare his/her professional interests to the OCA Ethics Committee. The Committee may draw the attention of the Candidate to potential conflicts of interests that it identifies.
This does not exempt the Candidate concerned from making subsequent declarations pursuant to article 4.

Article 9

Enforcement

The provisions set forth in the third paragraph of article 2 above shall apply to any situation of a potential conflict of interests, which is not declared by the person concerned by 18 January 2014.

Article 10

Execution

The OCA Executive Board and the OCA Ethics Committee are responsible, each in its own capacity, for the execution of these Rules.
Implementing Provision of OCA Code of Ethics

Rules of conduct applicable to all cities wishing to organise the asian games

Article 1 Scope of Application

These Rules apply to all Asian Olympic Parties, and in particular to cities wishing to organise the Asian Games (Summer, Indoor and Martial Arts, Winter, Beach, Youth) and their National Olympic Committees (NOCs), as well as to any person or organisation acting on their behalf or supporting them. Each NOC is responsible for ensuring compliance with these rules at all times.

These rules are applicable as soon as they are published on the OCA web site.

Article 2 Principles

The conduct of the cities shall comply strictly with the provisions of the OCA Constitution, the OCA Code of Ethics and its implementing provisions. The Cities shall also respect the procedure for evaluating the candidature established by the OCA.

The NOC of the country is responsible for the activities and conduct of each City of the country.

Article 3 Logo - Emblem

The Applicant Cities may use a logo, which does not feature the OCA symbol. The Candidate Cities may adopt an emblem, which includes the OCA symbol. The creation and use of the logo and emblem are subject to the conditions listed in Appendix 1.

They may also have a motto or slogan, which may not be incorporated into either the logo or the emblem, and the use of which is subject to the conditions listed in Appendix 1.
Article 4
Statement of Activities

The NOC of each Applicant City shall provide the OCA Evaluation and Ethics Committees with a list of OCA sports competitions and meetings of OCA-Recognised Organisations to take place in its territory.

This list concerns all the international events scheduled, or in the process of being scheduled, between the date of publication of the present Rules on the OCA website and the date of the Host City election.

Furthermore, any meeting of an organisation recognised by the OCA involving a significant number of OCA Members may not be organised on the territory of a City wishing to Host the Asian Games between the date of publication of the list of Applicant Cities and the election of the Host City by the Session.

Article 5
Assistance to NOCs

The NOC of each Applicant City shall provide the OCA Ethics Committee with a list of all NOC agreements and all assistance programmes, of any nature, existing on the date of publication of the present Rules on the OCA website, including those in partnership with the government of the country concerned.

The NOC shall provide this list within two months from the date of publication by the OCA of the list of Applicant Cities.

After the date of publication of the present Rules on the OCA website, any new agreement of any nature with any NOC shall be submitted beforehand to the OCA Ethics Committee for its review.

Article 6
Internet and Social Media

The Applicant and Candidate Cities may create their own Internet site for informative purposes only.
The site may list third Parties providing financial support to the candidature, subject to the conditions listed in Appendix 1. The sale of promotional items is permitted through the site, subject to the conditions listed in Appendix 1.

The Cities may promote their candidatures using social networks. They are responsible for the content of such Internet sites and the social networks used.

Article 7

Promotion

Throughout the procedure, the promotion of a candidature shall take place with dignity and moderation. The City and its NOC are entirely responsible for all forms of promotion. Any person or organisation acting on behalf of a City shall respect, in particular, the provisions of this article.

The OCA reserves the right to issue additional specific provisions concerning promotional activities during major continental events (see the examples in the non-exhaustive list in Appendix 2).

1. National Promotion

   National promotion of the candidature is possible at any time on the occasion of national events held on the territory of the NOC concerned. This territory must be understood in a restrictive manner excluding, in particular, diplomatic representations abroad.

2. International Promotion by the Candidates Cities

   The Candidate cities will be invited to make presentations, during which they will have the opportunity to address all the principal stakeholders of the OCA, and the following meetings:

   a. Candidate cities briefing for OCA EB Members;

   b. OCA GA at which the Host City is elected;

   c. Any other meetings as decided by OCA.

   The Candidate cities may be invited as observers to attend the GA of the NOC continental Associations, provided the meeting organisers are in agreement.
Article 8  Gifts

No gifts, of whatever value, may be given to or received by Asian Olympic Parties or the IFs/AFs recognised by the OCA. No advantage or promise of any kind of advantage may be made to or accepted by an Asian Olympic party or an IFs/AFs recognised by the OCA.

This prohibition shall be respected by the Cities and their NOCs as well as by all those acting on behalf of or supporting the candidature.

The same principle applies to the cities relations with third Parties, in particular the media and organisations recognised by the OCA.

Article 9  Relations with Sponsors

In order to preserve the integrity and neutrality of the procedure, OCA/Asian Games Sponsors and other OCA Marketing Partners shall refrain from supporting or promoting any of the Cities. Consequently, Cities may not solicit or accept any such support or promotion from Sponsors and other OCA Marketing Partners.

Article 10  Visits by AF, the OCA Evaluation Committee and the Media

Applicant Cities may request the written advice of the IFs/AFs concerning their project. If an IF/AF deems necessary a working visit to a City, the OCA may authorise such visit.

The Candidate Cities may organise, at their own expense, working visits by Sports Federations if these visits are necessary for the preparation of the candidature.

For the visits organised in the framework of the above two paragraphs, a sense of moderation must be respected, particularly concerning hospitality and accommodation.

The OCA Evaluation Committee will pay a working visit to each Candidate
City. The OCA will determine the order, period and programme of the visits. The Candidate Cities may organise working visits for representatives of the media, entirely at the cost of such representatives.

Article 11

Relations with OCA Members

There shall be no visits by OCA Members to the Cities, or by the Cities to OCA Members.

If an OCA Member has to travel to a City for any reason, he or she shall inform the OCA Ethics Committee beforehand. The City may not take advantage of this occasion for the promotion of its candidature, nor cover the costs and other expenses linked to such a visit, in particular travel and accommodation.

OCA Members may not be invited to any form of reception linked to the promotion of a candidature.

The ambassadors of the countries concerned may not visit the OCA Members nor invite the OCA Members to any form of reception in their embassies to promote the candidature.

No Honorary degrees or official decorations may be awarded to an OCA Member by a City or a representative of a City’s country between the date of publication of the present Rules on the OCA web site and the Host City election.

In order to respect the neutrality of the OCA Members, the cities may not use the name or image of an OCA Member, an OCA Honorary Member or an OCA Honour Member, except for the Members from the country of the City concerned.

Article 12

Election of the Host City (OCA GAMES)

The OCA Ethics Committee supervises the Host City election procedure, in accordance with the provisions made by the OCA. The Committee may request an amendment to these provisions.
Article 13  Relations Between cities

Each City shall, in all circumstances and at all times, respect the other cities as well as the OCA Members and the OCA itself.

The cities shall refrain from any act or comment likely to tarnish the image of a rival City or be prejudicial to it. Any comparison with other cities is strictly forbidden.

No agreement, coalition nor collusion between the cities or their NOCs aimed at influencing the result is permitted.

Article 14  Interpretation and Sanctions

All questions concerning the Rules of Conduct and matters concerning their interpretation shall be addressed to the OCA Asian Games Department.

Minor breaches of the Rules of Conduct will be dealt with by the Asian Games Department:

1. A first breach will result in a confidential observation, in writing, to the City concerned;

2. After consultation with Ethics Committee, a second breach will result in a written notification to the Members of the OCA Executive Board (and possibly the other Candidate Cities);

3. Further breaches of the Rules will be submitted to the OCA Ethics Committee, which will take the necessary measures.

Serious and repeated breaches of the Rules of Conduct will be dealt with by the OCA Ethics Committee. The Committee may recommend sanctions for approval by the OCA Executive Board.

The OCA Members will be informed, in writing, of any sanctions imposed by the OCA Executive Board. A press release will also be issued.
Appendix 1

Conditions governing the creation and use of logos and emblems.

Introduction and Definitions

1. The creation and use of logos and emblems by any Applicant City and/or Candidate City in connection with its bid to be appointed as Host of any edition of the Asian Olympic Games shall be subject to the prior written approval of the Olympic Council of Asia (OCA) and the corresponding National Olympic Committee (“NOC”) of the territory in which the Applicant City or Candidate City (jointly, “City” or “Cities”) is located in accordance with the terms and subject to the conditions set out in this appendix 1:

2. For the purposes of these Rules of Conduct, the following words shall have the following meanings:

a. “City Sponsor” shall mean any Sponsor appointed by the Applicant City or Candidate City (as appropriate) to support its bid to Host the Games;

b. “City Sponsor Designation” shall mean “Sponsor of [name of the City]” + “[year of the Asian Games for the Hosting of which the City is an Applicant or Candidate]” and no other element, it being understood that the Sponsor Designation shall not include the word “Asian Games”;

c. “City Word mark” shall mean the [name of the City] + [year of the Games] (on the same line);

d. “Designation” shall mean “Applicant City” or “Candidate City”, as applicable;

Applicant Cities for OCA Games

1. Creation of a Logo
An Applicant City may create a Logo in connection with its bid to be appointed as Host City of the Games, subject to the conditions that the distinctive design element of the Logo shall not:

a. Contain any component of the NOC Emblem or a distorted version thereof or a design confusingly similar thereto;

b. Be limited to the name or abbreviation of the territory in which the City is located;

c. Contain an image or expression with a well-known international or universal connotation or message; or

d. Contain the OCA Logo/Symbol, the OCA Motto, the OCA Flag, any other OCA related imagery (e.g. flame, torch, medal, etc.), Slogan, Designation or other indicia or the distorted version thereof or a design confusingly similar thereto.

2. Creation of a Slogan
An Applicant City may develop a Slogan, but is not obliged to do so, provided that it does not incorporate any elements of the Logo or any reference to the name of the City, the region or country in which the City is located, the year of the Games.

3. Approval of the Logo and/or the Slogan
The Applicant City shall first submit the Logo and the Slogan (if any) to the NOC for approval. If the Logo and/or the Slogan (if any) is approved by the corresponding NOC, the Applicant City shall thereafter submit such Logo and/or Slogan (if any) to the OCA for final written approval prior to any use.

4. General Use of the Logo
a. The Logo must always be reproduced in its entirety and no single element thereof may be used separately;

b. The position, proportion and design of the Logo must not be altered, distorted or re-drawn in any way whatsoever at any time;

c. Applicant Cities may not use the OCA Symbol in any manner whatsoever.
5. Institutional Use of the Logo and/or the Slogan

Applicant Cities may use the Logo and/or the Slogan (if any) for the purposes of institutional representation of their bid on:

a. Stationery (e.g. letterheads and business cards);

b. Candidature documents (e.g. presentations, brochures or videos);

c. On the official internet site dedicated to their bids.

6. Promotional Use of the Logo and/or the Slogan

Applicant Cities may use the Logo and/or the Slogan (if any), provided that there is no third-party association in relation thereto, for the purposes of promotional representation of their bid on a national basis only on:

a. Advertising;

b. Advertorials;

c. Promotional documents (e.g. brochures or magazines); and

d. Promotional Items.

7. Commercial Use of the Logo and/or the Slogan

a. Subject to prior written approval of the NOC, Applicant Cities may develop merchandise for sale bearing the Logo and/or the Slogan (if any) to promote the bid, provided that;

   I. Any such sales, whether through the official internet site of the City dedicated to its bid to Host the Games or otherwise, are limited to the territory of the corresponding NOC; and

   II. There is no third-party association in relation thereto.

b. Applicant Cities may authorise the use of the Logo and/or the Slogan (if any) by third Parties providing financial support to the bid, subject to the following conditions:

   I. Such third party is not a donor;

   II. Such third party is not a competitor in the category of any Olympic Sponsors, it being understood that exceptions may be granted by the OCA or the NOC of the corresponding Applicant City, as applicable, on a case-by-case basis provided that the Olympic Sponsors' rights are fully respected.

   III. Such use is restricted to the territory of the NOC of the corresponding Applicant City;
IV. The Applicant City provides to the OCA, upon request, copies of all promotional and commercial material; and

V. The Applicant City shall terminate its relationship with any such third party if so requested by the OCA in writing for any reason whatsoever.

c. Applicant Cities shall ensure that any agreements with third Parties providing financial support to the bid, and in which there is a grant of rights in relation to the Logo and/or the Slogan (if any), shall include provisions to ensure that:

I. In the event that the Applicant City is not selected by the OCA as a Candidate City, all rights granted by the Applicant City to the use of the Logo and/or the Slogan (if any) terminate on the date of announcement of the Candidate Cities selected by the OCA;

II. If not terminated earlier pursuant to paragraph c. I. Above, all rights granted by the City in connection with the use of the Logo and/or the Slogan (if any) terminate on the date of the decision to award the Games to any City; and

III. Third Parties providing financial support to the bid shall have no automatic or binding residual rights, options or other arrangements of any nature, express or implied, with respect to the Games if the City is successful in its bid to be appointed as the Host City of the Games.

Applicant Cities shall supply the OCA, upon request, with copies of all agreements and/or proposed agreements with third Parties providing financial support to the bid.

Candidate Cities

1. Use of the Logo and/or Slogan

A Candidate City may continue to use the Logo and/or Slogan (if any) in connection with its bid to be appointed as Host City of the Games, subject to and in accordance with the conditions set out in paragraph 2. Such use of the Logo and/or Slogan (if any) may be extended to outside the territory of the NOC of the corresponding Candidate City provided, however, that there is no third-party association in relation thereto.
2. Creation of an Emblem

A Candidate City may create an Emblem in connection with its bid to be appointed as Host City of the Games, subject to the following conditions:

a. The Emblem shall reproduce fully, accurately and without embellishment, the colour, design and appearance of the OCA LOGO/Emblem in accordance with the Graphic Guidelines; and;

b. The area covered by the OCA LOGO/Emblem shall not exceed One third of the total area of the Emblem.

3. Approval of the Emblem

The Candidate City shall first submit the Emblem to the NOC for approval. If the Emblem is approved by the corresponding NOC, the Candidate City shall thereafter submit the Emblem to the OCA for final written approval prior to any use.

4. General Use of the Emblem

a. Emblem must always be reproduced in its entirety and no single element thereof may be used separately;

b. The position, proportion and design of the Emblem must not be altered, distorted or re-drawn in any way whatsoever at any time.

5. Institutional Use of the Emblem

Candidate Cities may use the Emblem inside and outside of the territory of the NOC of the corresponding Candidate City, provided that there is no third-party association in relation thereto, for the purposes of institutional representation of their bid on:

a. Stationery (e.g. letterheads and business cards);

b. Candidature documents (e.g. presentations, brochures or videos);

c. The official internet site dedicated to their bids.

6. Promotional Use of the Emblem

Candidate Cities may use the Emblem inside and outside of the territory of the NOC of the corresponding Candidate City, provided that there is no third-party association in relation thereto, for the purposes of promotional representation of their bid on an international basis on:

a. Advertising;
b. Advertorials;
c. promotional documents (e.g. brochures or magazines);
d. Pins; and
e. Promotional displays or venue banners (e.g. exhibition stands).

7. Commercial Use of the Emblem

Candidate Cities shall not use or authorise the use of the Emblem by third Parties for any commercial purpose whatsoever.

Recognition and Communication by Third Parties providing financial support to the bid

1. Cities may list the names of third Parties providing financial support to the bid (including donors) on their official Internet site or in their publications provided that such third party is not a competitor in the category of a OCA/ Asian Games Partner or one of their NOC Sponsors;

2. Donors which are competitors in the product/service category of a TOP partner, another OCA/Asian Games Sponsors of the corresponding NOC of the City shall not be authorised to communicate with respect to their donation to the bid or otherwise associate themselves with the bid in any manner whatsoever.

If the City is awarded Asian Games / Respect of Commitment to OCA Sponsors

1. Cities shall collaborate at all times with the corresponding NOC to fully respect any and all contractual commitments undertaken by the NOC towards the OCA/ Asian Games Sponsors in the implementation of their bids.

The provisions of the Host City Contract between such City, the corresponding NOC and the OCA, together with the provisions of the OCA Constitution, shall apply thereafter.
Use of the OCA Symbol

1. Cities may not make any use of the OCA Symbol alone for any purpose whatsoever.
Appendix 2

Conditions governing the creation and use of logos and emblems.

The information in this appendix refers to the OCA GA during which a Host City is elected, the Briefing for OCA Members in OCA HQ and the Asian Games. This information complements and is an integral part of the Rules of Conduct Applicable to All Cities Wishing to Organise the Asian Games. The information is not exhaustive and may be complemented by further information by the OCA.

Any reference to Applicant and Candidate Cities in this document also encompasses their respective NOCs, the governments/embassies/consulates of the respective countries, Sponsors or any other person or organisation acting for or on their behalf or supporting them.

This meeting is organised in OCA HQ during the Candidate City phase and is structured to provide the OCA Members and the Candidate Cities with the utmost opportunity to interact and discuss the Candidate Cities’ projects.
OCA GA during which a Host City is elected

1. Promotion

There may be no receptions held by a Candidate City for any persons other than the City’s own delegation. Candidate Cities or any other third party acting for or on behalf of the bid will not be permitted to hire their own premises for promotional activities or to meet with OCA Members (e.g. NOC house or Bid City Restaurant etc.). The Candidate Cities will, however, be provided with the opportunity to have a suite at the official OCA Hotel where the cities can meet with OCA Members to discuss their projects.

The above rule, however, does not prevent the Candidate Cities from organising activities for their own delegations, in the spirit of moderation.

No OCA Members, apart from the OCA Members of the countries concerned or officials of the country organising the GA, may be invited to a reception organised by a Candidate City or to any form of diplomatic reception organised by the country of a Candidate City.

Embassy/Consulate premises may not be used for any meetings with OCA Members.

2. Advertising

In line with Article 7 of the Rules of Conduct, the Candidate Cities may not carry out any form of international promotion in the country where the Host City election will take place during the three-week period before the election. The Candidate Cities may not undertake any form of written advertising in the local or international media during this three-week period (this includes magazines, newspaper wraps, internet and television). Interviews and editorials are, however, permitted.

Furthermore, there may be no form of “building wrap”/external decoration or any billboard advertising whatsoever relating to any candidature.

3. Media

The OCA will provide each City with the opportunity to hold a press conference in the GA venue following its final presentation to the OCA Members. If Candidate Cities wish to hold other press conferences, they may do so, but not in the official OCA Hotel or the GA venue.

There must be no reception at the end of any press conferences.
4. Document Distribution

   Documentation in English may be distributed in line with instructions provided by OCA Asian Games Department.

   No documents may be delivered by the Cities or any third party working on their behalf to the OCA Members’ hotel rooms.

Briefing for OCA Members

1. Promotion

   Candidate Cities may not organise any receptions and are not permitted to hire their own premises for promotional activities or to meet with OCA Members (e.g. NOC house or Bid City Restaurant etc.).

   There may be no receptions held by a Candidate City for any persons other than the City’s own delegation.

   Embassy/Consulate premises may not be used for any meetings with OCA Members.

2. Media

   If Candidate Cities wish to hold a press conference, they may do so, but not at the OCA Headquarters or any other venue as specified by the OCA. The OCA will not provide the cities with the opportunity to hold a press conference.

   There must be no reception at the end of any press conferences.

3. Document Distribution

   Documentation in English may be distributed in line with instructions provided by OCA Asian Games Department.

   No documents may be delivered by the cities or any third party working on their behalf to the OCA Members’ hotel rooms.

Asian Games (Summer, Indoor and Martial Arts, Winter, Beach, Youth)

1. Promotion

   Applicant/Candidate Cities may set up a bid exhibition in the respective NOC House or at a location approved by the OCA during the Asian Games if they so wish and promotional documentation may be distributed.

   Cities are permitted to have some element of team visibility on their official clothing during the Games, provided the following is respected:
• Cities may use their Logo (i.e. graphic device – see definition in appendix 1) on items of clothing;
• The Logo in its entirety shall not be larger than 20 cm²;
• only City representatives (excluding national delegations, athletes and NOC accredited persons) may wear the items of clothing;
• There must be no advertising or trademark on the items of clothing except the manufacturer’s mark (see below);
• The identification of the manufacturer on the clothing should be in accordance with Rule of the OCA Constitution, in particular:
• The identification of the manufacturer shall not appear more than once per item of clothing;
• Any manufacturer’s identification must not exceed 20 cm².

All other forms of identification on Applicant or Candidate Cities' clothing are prohibited.
Ethics Committee

A. Composition and Organization:

1. The OCA Ethics Committee (the Committee) is independent; it is composed of five (5) Members, among whom there shall be:

2. The Members of the Committee shall be designated by the OCA President, and their appointment is subject to ratification by the OCA Executive Board.

3. The Chairperson of the Committee shall be appointed by the OCA President.

4. The Committee reports to the OCA Executive Board.

5. The Committee meets when convened by its Chairperson, at least on a semi-annual basis. The required quorum is constituted if at least three of the Members are present.

6. The Committee shall be assisted by a Secretary appointed by the Committee Chairperson in consultation with the OCA President. His or her tasks are defined in a job description approved by the Committee Chairperson and the OCA President.

B. Terms of Reference of the Committee:

1. In the framework of the competence of the Committee as defined in the OCA Constitution, the terms of reference of the Committee are:

i) The Members of the Committee shall be designated by the OCA President, and their appointment is subject to ratification by the OCA Executive Board.

ii) to perform any other task, linked to the development of and respect for the ethical principles, assigned to it by the OCA Executive Board and/or the OCA President.

2. The Committee presents an annual report on its activities to the OCA General Assembly. This report will be published.

C. Conditions required for Committee Membership:

Members of the Committee shall not take any measure nor exercise any influence in relation to a matter where any conflict of interests or any other conflict exists or is perceived to exist.
D. Term of appointment of Committee Members:

1. The duration of the term of a Committee member is four (4) years. Such term is renewable. The term of a person who is a Committee member by virtue of his or her OCA Membership shall end when such person ceases to be an OCA Member. He or she may however be appointed as a Committee member in the category of persons who are not OCA Members.

2. The term of office of a Committee member takes effect on the day his/her appointment is approved by the OCA Executive Board.

3. In the event of the Chairperson being impeded from performing his or her duties as Chairperson, the longest serving member of the Committee shall perform these functions.

   In the event of death, resignation or inability of a member to perform his or her functions, the member shall be replaced.

   Any member of the Committee who is to be replaced shall remain in office until a replacement has been approved by the OCA Executive Board.

4. A Committee member may be removed from office only by a decision of the OCA Executive Board and with the approval of two-thirds of the Committee Members, the member concerned being heard by the Committee.
